

County/Independent City Impacts Associated with Ophelia (2023)

Narratives listed in alphabetical order by counties/independent cities. Virginia counties/independent cities are first, followed by North Carolina counties, then Maryland counties.

Updates:

- [09/29/2023] - Initial issuance.

County Name Chesterfield (VA)	Injuries: 0	Fatalities: 0	Evacuations: 0
Heavy rainfall resulted in high water on some roadways (including Route 10) during the late afternoon and evening hours on 9/23. There were multiple road closures in the county.

Independent City Name City of Richmond (VA)	Injuries: 0	Fatalities: 0	Evacuations: 0
Heavy rainfall resulted in high water on some roadways during the late afternoon and evening hours on 9/23. There were multiple road closures in the city.

County Name Dinwiddie (VA)	Injuries: 0	Fatalities: 0	Evacuations: 0
Heavy rainfall resulted in high water on some roadways during the late afternoon and evening hours on 9/23.

County Name Greensville (VA)	Injuries: 0	Fatalities: 0	Evacuations: 0
Heavy rainfall resulted in high water on several roadways during the afternoon hours on 9/23. This is an area that is not normally susceptible to flooding.

County Name Southampton (VA)	Injuries: 0	Fatalities: 0	Evacuations: 0
Heavy rainfall resulted in high water on several roadways during the afternoon hours on 9/23. There was one reported road closure in the county.

County Name Perquimans (NC)	Injuries: 0	Fatalities: 0	Evacuations: 0
---------------------------------------	----------------	------------------	-------------------

A tornado touched down in a field near Belvidere (in the northern part of the county). While there was no known damage, the thin rope tornado was confirmed from a video.

County Name Worcester (MD)	Injuries: 0	Fatalities: 0	Evacuations: 0
--------------------------------------	----------------	------------------	-------------------

A roof was blown off of a condominium during the early morning hours on 9/23 due to the high winds.
