

County Impacts Associated with Post-Tropical Cyclone Lee (2023)

Narratives listed in alphabetical order with NH counties first, followed by Maine counties.

Updates:

- [9/20/23 - Initial issuance.

County Name Coastal Rockingham	Injuries: None	Fatalities: None	Evacuations: None
No significant impacts were reported for this event. No coastal flooding was reported, but there was some high surf on the Saturday afternoon high tide cycle as long period 10 to 11 foot swells reached the coast. Winds remained off-shore for the majority of the event limiting wind gusts impacts. Isolated power outages were reported due to downed tree limbs with less than 1000 outages reported. No flooding impacts were reported.

County Name York	Injuries: Unknown	Fatalities: None	Evacuations: None
Minor impacts were reported for this event. No inundation flooding was reported, but there was high surf on the Saturday midday high tide cycle as long period 10 to 11 foot swells reached the coast. This caused some minor splash-over and erosion in isolated areas. Gusty northerly winds lead to minor wind impacts as branches and a few trees came down, which led to 6000 outages in the county on Saturday afternoon. No flooding impacts were reported.

County Name Cumberland	Injuries: Unknown	Fatalities: None	Evacuations: None
Minor impacts were reported for this event. No inundation flooding was reported, but there was high surf on the Saturday midday high tide cycle as long period 10 to 11 foot swells reached the coast. This caused some minor splash-over and erosion in isolated areas. Gusty northerly winds led to minor wind impacts as branches and a few trees came down, which led to 5000 outages in the county on Saturday afternoon. No flooding impacts were reported.

County Name Sagadahoc	Injuries: Unknown	Fatalities: None	Evacuations: None
Minor impacts were reported for this event. No inundation flooding was reported, but there was high surf on the Saturday midday high tide cycle as long period 10 to 11 foot swells reached the coast. This caused some minor splash-over and erosion in isolated areas. Gusty northerly winds led to minor wind impacts as branches and a few trees came down, which led to 4500 outages in the county on Saturday afternoon. No flooding impacts were reported.

County Name Lincoln	Injuries: Unknown	Fatalities: None	Evacuations: None
Minor impacts were reported for this event. No inundation flooding was reported, but there was high surf on the Saturday midday high tide cycle as long period 10 to 11 foot swells reached the coast. This caused some minor splash-over and erosion in isolated areas. Gusty northerly winds led to minor to moderate wind impacts as branches and many trees came down, which led to 9500 outages in the county on Saturday afternoon. Power outage rates reached close to 25% of the county. No flooding impacts were reported.

County Name Knox	Injuries: Unknown	Fatalities: None	Evacuations: None
Minor impacts were reported for this event. No inundation flooding was reported, but there was high surf on the Saturday midday high tide cycle as long period 10 to 11 foot swells reached the coast. This caused some minor splash-over and erosion in isolated areas. Gusty northerly winds led to minor to moderate wind impacts as branches and many trees came down, which led to 6000 outages in the county on Saturday afternoon. No flooding impacts were reported.

County Name Waldo	Injuries: Unknown	Fatalities: 1	Evacuations: None
Minor impacts were reported for this event. No inundation flooding was reported, but there was high surf on the Saturday midday high tide cycle as long period 8 to 10 foot swells reached the coast. This caused some minor splash-over and erosion in isolated areas. Gusty northerly winds led to minor to moderate wind impacts as branches and many trees came down, which led to 7000 outages in the county on Saturday afternoon. Power outage rates reached close to 25% of the county. A man was killed while driving when a large tree limb fell on his car. No flooding impacts were reported.

County Name Androscoggin	Injuries: Unknown	Fatalities: None	Evacuations: None
Minor impacts were reported for this event. Gusty northerly winds led to minor to moderate wind impacts as branches and a few trees came down, which led to 5000 outages in the county on Saturday afternoon. Power outage rates reached close to 10% of the county. No flooding impacts were reported.

County Name Kennebec	Injuries: Unknown	Fatalities: None	Evacuations: None
Minor impacts were reported for this event. Gusty northerly winds led to minor to moderate wind impacts as branches and many trees came down, which led to 8000 outages in the county on Saturday afternoon. Power outage rates reached close to 15% of the county. No flooding impacts were reported.

County Name Somerset	Injuries: Unknown	Fatalities: None	Evacuations: None
Minor impacts were reported for this event. Gusty northerly winds led to minor to moderate wind impacts as branches and a few trees came down, which led to 6500 outages in the county on Saturday afternoon. Power outage rates reached close to 20% of the county. No flooding impacts were reported.			