

NOAA EXPERTS SHARE SCIENCE AND POLICIES AT NATIONAL METEOROLOGICAL MEETING IN SEATTLE

NOAA leaders and researchers met with members of the American Meteorological Society (AMS) to discuss organizational policies and to share their latest findings on a variety of climate and weather-related topics. The 84th Annual meeting took place January 11-15, 2004 and was held at the Washington State Convention and Trade Center in Seattle. Read more...
