

County Impacts Associated with Ophelia (2023)

Narratives listed in alphabetical order by counties

Updates:

- [09/26/2023] - Initial issuance.

County Name	Injuries:	Fatalities:	Evacuations:
Edgecombe	0	0	0
Widespread moderate to heavy rainfall occurred across the County, with several instances of 4-5 inches of rain reported. In addition, several trees were reported down across the County.

County Name	Injuries:	Fatalities:	Evacuations:
Halifax	0	0	0
Widespread moderate to heavy rainfall occurred across the County. Rainfall ranged from just over 2 inches in the northern portion of the County to over 5 inches in the southeastern corner. In addition, flooding was reported along Highway 903 in Scotland Neck.

County Name	Injuries:	Fatalities:	Evacuations:
Nash	0	0	0
Widespread moderate to heavy rainfall occurred across the County, with 2-3 inches of rain reported. In addition, scattered trees were downed across the county, including Middlesex, Nashville, Red Oak, and Rocky Mount.

County Name	Injuries:	Fatalities:	Evacuations:
Sampson	0	0	0
Widespread moderate to heavy rainfall occurred across the County, with 1-3 inches of rain reported.

County Name Wayne	Injuries: 0	Fatalities: 0	Evacuations: 0
Widespread moderate to heavy rainfall occurred across the County, with 2-3 inches of rain reported.

County Name Wilson	Injuries: 0	Fatalities: 0	Evacuations: 0
Widespread moderate to heavy rainfall occurred across the County, with 2-3 inches of rain reported. In addition, a tree fell on a house at Oak Ave and Gold St near the town of Wilson. There were several reports of flooding across the County.			